

WSSF Scores Sanction Of '$4000 Drive' Council Approves Nominations For Four Top ASUH Offices; Petition Deadline March 30

Denounces Andersen-Furuhashi Fund; To Issue 'Postpone Or Abandon' Petition

By HILDA TERADA
Ka Leo Staff Reporter

In a protest move, the campus WSSF committee announced Saturday that it will petition the ASUH student council to "postpone or abandon" plans for the $4000 Greta Andersen-Hironoshin Furuhashi fund drive.

Chairman George Lum, bitterly denouncing the council's sanction of the drive, told the committee that the WSSF campaign, scheduled to be launched April 27, will be "hard hit" if the $4000 fund gets underway before that time.

HE ASSERTED the drive to bring the swimmers here is solely for the "athletic glorification of the university," while the WSSF campaign "benefits students throughout the world."

Following an hour of heated discussion, in which the student council's action was assailed and denounced, the committeemen voted unanimously to send the ASUH "a strong letter of protest."

REGARDLESS OF WHAT the council decides, the WSSF drive will be launched Wednesday, April 27, with an hour long convocation, Lum said. This year WSSF's goal is $4000.

The UH campaign, sponsored by 10 campus clubs, faculty, alumni, and others, will conclude May 4.

Material For Berndt Contest Topic Available

Books and pamphlets pertaining to "The Pacific Era" are available to students who are planning to participate in the Berndt extemporaneous speaking contest.

The information can be obtained through Ben Menor at the BODF office in the new wing of Hemenway hall.

NEW COLLEGE POSSIBLE

UH May Offer Degree In Business Administration

A curriculum committee set up by the council of deans is now studying the possibilities of offering a bachelor of business administration degree to UH students, revealed Dr. Paul S. Bachman.

Following approval of the council, the committee's report will eventually lead to the establishment of a college of business administration, he stated.

ALSO, IT WAS reported that the group will determine the supplementary courses and personnel necessary for the proposed college.

Dr. Bachman optimistically stated that within a few years such a school may be a part of UH. "However, everything depends entirely upon funds and staff available," he continued.

Faculty Donations Increase Red Cross Total To $1,088.95

With the inclusion of faculty and staff donations, UH contributions to the Red Cross drive now total $1,088.95.

Student donations amounted to $116.70, while the total collected from the faculty and staff was $972.25.

Sueki Yamamoto was in charge of the student drive. Miss Bertha Mueller directed the faculty campaign.

Charter Changes Up For Plebiscite This Thursday

Student electorate will go to the plebiscite polls this Thursday to vote on the proposed amendments to the ASUH and BOG constitutions.

Councilman Albert Evensen (Senior), chairman of the ASUH constitution amendment committee, said the plebiscite will be held in front of Hemenway hall from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Official ASUH ballots and regular election procedure will be followed.

CONDUCTING the plebiscite will be the ASUH election committee. Hamilton Ahlo heads this group.

If there is a two-thirds majority vote of 10 per cent of the electorate, the amendments will go into effect immediately, Evensen said.

AMONG THE proposed amendments to the ASUH constitution is a provision to change the name of the ASUH council to the ASUH senate.

This change has been suggested because it was felt by certain members of the ASUH that their council is sometimes confused with other councils on campus.

Charter Day Guest

CONVOCATION SPEAKER — Princeton university president, Dr. Harold W. Dodds, will deliver the main Charter Day address Friday. His topic will be "Hindrances to Good Citizenship." All classes are to be dismissed from 10 to 11:30 a.m. for the convocation.

Concert Hours Set

Varied selections from the Carnegie music library will be played for music lovers during the concert hour, 1 to 3 p.m. Monday to Friday in room 1 at Hemenway hall, it was announced by co-chairmen Paula Simpson and Phyllis Wiebke.

PREPARING FOR MAINLAND TOUR—Revocato Medina (left) and Hideto Kono, who will represent UH on a multi-state debating trip, are shown putting the finishing touches to their plans. Medina and Kono, both seniors, were selected to make the tour at an oratorical contest two weeks ago. They leave for the Mainland this Friday at 5:30 p.m. (Ka Leo Photo by Nick Massey)

Statehood Bill To Be Offered At Chicago

HR 49, Hawaii's statehood bill, will be presented by Hideto Kono and Revocato Medina, UH representatives to the fourth national student congress of Delta Sigma Rho, which will be held in Chicago Mar. 31 to April 2.

The bill, part of President Truman's civil rights program, is a major issue to be considered by the debate delegation this year.

DELEGATES FROM approximately 70 American colleges and universities will attend the congress, which meets biennially in Chicago to discuss major congressional legislation.

Legislative sessions will be nationally publicized by radio and television.

MEDINA AND Kono are scheduled to leave Friday at 5:30 p.m. by Pan American Airways, and to return April 10.

In addition, the team will embark on a debate itinerary including the Universities of Missouri, Illinois, Minnesota, Oklahoma, Colorado, Iowa State college, and Washington university in St. Louis, Mo.

Debate On Pacific Destiny Ends Season

The final debate of the season, "America's Destiny Lies In The Pacific," will be presented Thursday at 8 p.m. at Hemenway hall, disclosed Ben Menor, student manager of the board of debate and forensics.

Hideto Kono and Revocato Medina, who leave for the Mainland the following evening, will uphold the affirmative. Henry Song and Axel Ornelles will take the negative stand.

Menor also announced that due to "unforeseen circumstances," the presentation of an old time melodrama, "Billy the Kid," by a UH student reading group has been postponed indefinitely.

NO CLASSES

ASUH Will Ask For Late April Campus Day Fete

A resolution calling for a petition to request administration officials for a Campus Day some time in the latter part of April was unanimously adopted by the ASUH council last Thursday.

Asking for dismissal of classes to celebrate Campus Day, the petition will be forwarded to President Gregg M. Sinclair shortly.

ASUH President Warren Higa said that the resolution was passed as a result of a recent petition signed by 546 students which called for "celebration of Charter Day as it has been in the past."

Nickerson Returns From Mainland Tomorrow Night

MR. NICKERSON

Mr. Thomas Nickerson, head of the UH office of publications, is returning tomorrow at 6 p.m. from Boston, Mass., where he underwent several surgical operations.

He will resume his duties April 1 in room 108, Hawaii hall.

In a recent letter to President Gregg M. Sinclair, Mr. Nickerson said his operations were very successful.

At its regular Thursday meeting last week, the student council approved the list of candidates submitted by the nominations committee for the four top ASUH offices.

The nominees are, president: Bob Katayama, John Phillips, and Barry Rubin; vice president: Hamilton Ahlo, Ralph Aoki, Ray Haftel, Daniel Inouye, and Denis Wong.

ALSO, treasurer: Satoru Izutsu, George Koga, Harry Tsuji, and Frank Watase; and secretary: Caroline Lee, Merrie Stacey, Teruko Tokunaga, and Katherine Uemura.

When contacted by Ka Leo, Rubin, presidential nominee, said he will accept the nomination. Phillips and Katayama could not be reached.

WITH THE exception of Daniel Inouye, all the aspirants in the race for the vice presidential post asserted that they will accept.

George Koga and Harry Tsuji, who were named in the treasurer's list, declined the nomination. Izutsu and Watase could not be reached for comment.

CONSENTING to run for the secretaryship were Merrie Stacey, Katherine Uemura, and Teruko Tokunaga. Caroline Lee, the fourth candidate, stated that she was still "undecided."

Meanwhile, the student council designated Wednesday, March 30, 4 p.m. as the deadline for submitting petitions for additional nominations.

PETITION blanks, which are available at the ASUH office, must be signed by 25 bona fide ASUH students in "good standing."

The election for these four offices will take place Wednesday, April 6.

McClain Conducts UH Band At Noon Concert Today

The UH band conducted by Mr. Ernest McClain will present another student concert 12:30 today at the ewa side of Hawaii hall.

Included on the half hour program are a cornet solo, Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Flight of the Bumble Bee" by Richard Lum, and "Adagio" by Haydn, featuring Paul Mark, trombone soloist.

$50 Scholarship Open To Women

Character, academic credit, and financial need will determine the winner of a $50 scholarship offered to UH women students by the Pilot club of Honolulu.

The Pilot club, made up of professional women, is limiting the scholarship qualification to sophomore, junior and senior students.

Business College Questionnaires Due

Business and economic students are reminded to submit their duplicate college of business administration questionnaires by Saturday, March 26, in the Commerce club mail box, located in the mauka end of the campus mail room.

Your Duty As A Citizen

UH's first constitutional amendment plebiscite since 1946 will be conducted this Thursday. At least 10 per cent of the electorate must vote, otherwise the amendments will be lost through default.

ASUH members have had ample time to familiarize themselves with the proposed changes and additions to the ASUH and BOG charters, so to claim ignorance of the proposals is a lame excuse indeed.

Mark Thursday, March 24, as an important date on your calendar. Your constitutions are involved. It is your duty as a citizen to vote.

Keep 'em In The Light

President Truman called the right tune when he tabbed commies in America "traitors to the United States." He leveled this damning blast following an announcement from leaders of the Communist party in New York that Reds in America would support the Soviet Union in event of war between the two nations.

Washington is playing its cards wisely in not outlawing the commies so long as there is no war, even though they stand condemned as traitors to the country which protects them.

Keep the Reds out in the open, and they are comparatively easy to track. Drive them underground, and they will thrive and grow fat, like certain other creatures which make their homes in dark holes.

A Word To The Wise

This Friday UH will be honored with the presence of Dr. Harold W. Dodds, president of Princeton university. President Dodds will speak at the Charter Day convocation in Andrews theatre, and will be granted an honorary degree.

Classes are to be dismissed from 10 to 11:30 a.m. to afford students the opportunity to hear this distinguished educator. It is hoped that the student body will not repeat last year's embarrassing situation of a scantily filled theatre.

The administration has implied that student interest in campus activities will be judged on the number attending the convocation. The administration will undoubtedly keep that in mind when our request for Awards Day appears on its desk.

Plenty Room For Spectators

We have often wondered why it is that members of the ASUH appear so lackadaisical when it comes to witnessing their own government in operation. The student council has been conducting regular sessions for six months now, and we have yet to see interested observers from the student body sitting in at the proceedings, which are far from monotonous most of the time.

With elections for all offices around the corner, it is a smart policy for the voting public and prospective candidates to learn at first hand just how the student government goes about its business.

The council meets every Thursday at 12:40 p.m., generally in the special dining room of Hemenway hall. The welcome mat is always out for visitors.

Running Neck and Neck

In January the BOG addressed a communication to the university administration, requesting the latter to purchase the sorely needed trophy case for Hemenway. BOG determined, and correctly so, that since the case will be a permanent fixture in the hall, the university is obliged to secure it.

To date, the board has received no reply from Hawaii hall. It seems the powers that be have decided to pull a "BOGged down" of their own.

Now we are informed that persons in Hilo are more than willing to donate a trophy cabinet to UH, if space is available. In that case, BOG reenters the picture. The race between the administration and BOG should be an interesting one to follow.

It's Theatre, Not Arena

This newspaper, along with countless others on and off campus, has been guilty of using a misnomer in connection with the Andrews theatre. In the past, Ka Leo has referred to it as Andrews amphitheatre, without realizing the error of our ways.

Recently, however, it has been called to our attention that the appellation "amphitheatre" is not befitting the site in question. Technically, an amphitheatre is another way of saying arena, where rodeos and bullfights, or other similar uncultured spectacles take place.

The fact of the matter is that when Arthur Lynn Andrews lay dying May 17, 1945, the board of regents, in a touching and dramatic gesture, decided to rename the University of Hawaii's outdoor theatre in his honor. Consequently, in June of the same year a dedication ceremony was held, during which the site was designated the Arthur Lynn Andrews Memorial theatre.

Hereafter, Ka Leo's policy will be to call a theatre a theatre. And we hope all others will follow suit.

TAKE YOUR PICK

Worried About Your Future? Read On, Pal

Twiddling your thumbs about what to do after graduation? Fellowships and assistantships in one's major field of study may be worth considering.

Attractive offers for graduates are being made by outstanding colleges and universities for the school year beginning Sept. 1949. "These offers are exceptionally good," remarked Mrs. Mariko Hong of the office of student personnel.

STIPENDS VARY from $500 to $4000. Students may do graduate work plus gain much valuable experience as part-time assistants. Washington State college is offering fellowships in counseling ranging from grants of $1200 to $2000.

RESEARCH STUDENTS with some experience may be interested in a $3000-$4000 stipend offered by the Survey Research center, University of Michigan.

The psychology department of Bryn Mawr college, Penn., is offering a $1250 fellowship. From the Library school of the University of Illinois comes a $600-$1000 fellowship plus exemption from tuition.

UNIVERSITY OF Chicago school of business offers a limited number of fellowships ranging from $500-$1000.

Students in psychology working for a PhD may apply for graduate assistantships at the University of Rochester, N.Y. Grants for entering students are from $900 to $1500, plus a remission from tuition.

FELLOWSHIPS at the University of Utah are open in every department at the school. They range from $500 to $1200.

These are only some of the many offers available, and illustrate the wide variety of opportunities. Interested persons should inquire at the office of student personnel.

Goodbye To Snow; It's Spring, Tra-La!

No need for a calendar to tell us that spring is here. The first robin, the emerald blades of grass knifing their way through the soil, the cheery rosebuds each one, the thawing snows, all tell us that spring, tra-la, began yesterday.

UH is not the only school having budget trouble with its legislature. The University of Nevada is facing a similar situation, and the ASUN has outlined a three-point program to be followed by the student improvement committee:

1. Contact the ways and means committee at the capitol personally and tell them that the students are behind the original board of regents' budget.
2. Reach high school principals by letters, and influence them to take appropriate action, such as calling the issue to the attention of parents and teachers.
3. Inform the major newspapers of the state about the budget and encourage their support.

AN UNFORTUNATE SITUATION

Brotherhood Week at Brooklyn college was marked by anything but brotherliness as conflict arose between student factions.

A brotherhood rally on campus was originally scheduled by the Young Republicans club in conjunction with the Young Democrats. But it was denounced as "Jim Crow" by the National association for the advancement of colored people, which scheduled a separate rally in protest.

This was followed by the withdrawal of three non-Negro speakers, advisers of religious organizations on campus, who did not wish to be caught in the crossfire of the student dispute.

The original meeting drew 50, the other 200.

Letters From The Readers

ASKS FOR 'MORE DEMOCRATIC METHOD'

EDITOR KA LEO:

There is much uneasiness on my part, as well as on the part of those with whom I have talked, as regards the activities of the recently formed "Campus Organization Constitution Review Committee."

The stated purposes of this committee are:

1. "... designed for the sole purpose of assisting clubs that are having difficulty in interpreting and applying their constitutions ..."
2. "... that the primary purpose of this undertaking is to once more focus attention on the fact that your constitution is the supreme law of your organization."—Letter to all campus organization presidents, 15 March 1949.

The methods to be employed to accomplish these purposes are:

1. Call in for review the constitutions of all the campus organizations.
 2. Threaten suspension and dissolution of those organizations which fail to submit their constitution.
- ... is there not a simpler method to achieve the stated purposes? ... could there not be found a more democratic method to accomplish the goal?

Surely, our esteemed ASUH council which authorized ... this committee owes it to its constituents as well as to itself (as election time will be coming soon) to direct its committee—if it does not wish to revise its method—to cook up a more plausible statement of purpose to make its method appear more worthy.

—HIDETO KONO

DECRIES PAPER TOWEL SITUATION

EDITOR KA LEO:

I would like to use your "letters" column to express a grievance held, I believe, by many men students on campus. This is in regard to the atrocious contraptions which are passing as paper towel containers in the men's washrooms in the social science building. These paper holders hold papers, period. No amount of coaxing can produce said towels when needed.

They snap out of the container only at infrequent intervals—probably about every five minutes. Thus, one has to be extremely fortunate to have a towel ready for use immediately after washing the hands. Whoever is responsible for the installation of these containers (or holders) is "real manini." Can't something be done about this lamentable situation?

P.S. I hate to carry a wet handkerchief in my pocket.

SEES THREAT TO ACADEMIC FREEDOM

EDITOR KA LEO:

As a student with too little time to engage in campus activities, I have come to depend on Ka Leo for an accurate picture of university life. From my reading I conclude that Ka Leo sees student interest in matters as diverse as the BOG dispute over space allocation, parking lot difficulties, the selection of a campus queen, and even prognostication concerning Stalin's demise.

All this indicates a healthy curiosity ... however, a student paper can be more than a clearing house for rumors or a bulletin for club activity ... (it) has a responsibility to Truth and Knowledge ... of leading a full discussion on subjects which threaten academic freedom. A case in point—the ... contest on "Free Enterprise, What it means, etc." raises several questions.

1. Did university officials suggest the requirement that entries be submitted for a preliminary reading?
2. If the requirement was offered by American Factors, sponsors of the contest, was any protest offered by university representatives?
3. Does the university permit any organization to sponsor contests on campus? If not, where is the line drawn, and by whom?
4. Was the student council present at discussions between representatives of Am Fac and UH? What was its position?
5. Does the Editor consider the requirement mentioned in question 1 as consonant with the students' duty to search for truth through knowledge?

... The tongue-in-cheek attitude with which students discuss the requirements for the censored entries in the contest may speak well for their world-wisdom but promises nothing of love and respect for the University of Hawaii.

—STEPHEN MURIN

(According to Dr. Joseph Smith, speech dept. chairman, written entries for the forthcoming oratory contest will not be censored in any manner whatsoever. Calling for preliminary written manuscripts is a standard practice in speech contests, he informed Ka Leo. Furthermore, a contestant may take any stand on the topic which he cares to. Apparently, Reader Murlin's five questions were predicated on a false assumption. —EDITOR.)

SAM OKINAGA

THE ENTREE AT CAFE PAIX

Coach Art Gallon's cagers suffered four defeats on the Mainland but they will tell you that none of the games caused more humiliation than the incident at Cafe Paix, Oakland.

Gliding into San Francisco the morning of Feb. 25, the 13 Hawaiians drove to Oakland where they were promised a hearty meal at the Cafe. For one reason or other they were unable to stop for breakfast and reached Oakland several hours after noon.

OKINAGA

Immediately on arrival, the hungry travelers rushed into the exclusive Cafe as politely as they could. Their mouths watered as they saw the big dishes of crab salad on the expensive tablecloth. After the conventional signal from their hostess, Mrs. Lou Bittner, the cagers dove into the food.

The plate was so huge, they naturally thought that was the main and only dish. Hunger won over etiquette and soon the UH representatives were filling themselves with every edible food on the plate (leaving just the crab shells) to make up for the almost 18 hours of fasting.

The crabs just weren't enough for the cagers. But the 13 polite Hawaiians did not complain. That was the last thing they would do. All they hoped for was that the waiter would not be ired by their continuous request for water.

Mrs. Bittner, the manager of the Cafe, thought these were the thirstiest guests she had ever seen, and probably thought thankfully that water was inexpensive.

One bright cager, tiring of plain water, luxuriously squeezed the lemon, which was used as garnish for the crab salad, into his glass of water.

With a "let's find a hamburger stand" countenance, the unsatisfied diners began to leave.

Then out of the corner of their eyes, they saw the waiter approaching their table with huge bowls of soup. All the water in their digestive system gurgled when the waiter served each cager with a bowl.

The surprised guests sheepishly looked at each other. The main dish was yet to come—but somehow they weren't hungry anymore.

"I am in favor of Mainland trips for our athletes because it is educational." I believe somebody said that.

ROUND TRIPPER

Coach Art Gallon Leaves For Mainland Meet Today

ART GALLON

By DICK NAGATA
Ka Leo Staff Reporter

Coach Art Gallon, UH's genial basketball mentor, will once again leave for the Mainland; this time as representative to the National coaches basketball conference which will be held at Seattle, Wash., March 24 to 26.

The brains behind the nation's top basketball teams from all over the country will attend this conference for the purpose of discussing every phase of the game.

IDEAS, RULE interpretations, and various other differences will be ironed-out thoroughly for the benefit of the coaches attending the meeting.

Although an annual affair, this will be the first time a local representative will be attending the conference because the previous meets were held on the east coast.

WHILE ON THE Mainland, Gallon will have opportunities to make preliminary negotiations with various coaches for the possibility of arranging games for next season's basketball team inasmuch as he does not know whether UH will be represented in the NAIB tournament next year.

Gallon will leave Honolulu via Pan American Airways 5:30 p.m. today, and will be back by early Monday morning next week. His trip is sponsored by Honolulu Travel Service.

Volleyball Players Asked To Register

All students interested in participating in the all campus doubles and open interclub volleyball tournaments are asked to sign up at Claude Takekawa's office.

It was also announced that the schedule for the novice interclub volleyball tourney is posted on the Intramural bulletin board.

Ping Pong Schedule Now Posted: Matsuda

All players who are entered in the novice table tennis tournament are asked to check the matches schedule at Hemenway hall immediately, according to Manager T. Matsuda.

ED LOUI IS HIGH SCORER

Kahuanui Has Top Average Per Cagefest

High point man of the 1948-49 Rainbow cage season, Ed "Hot Dog" Loui has amassed a total of 268 points.

Playing and scoring in all of the 24 UH games, the slim forward has a commendable average of 11.17 tallies per fray. Also outstanding was Loui's alert defensive abilities displayed through the season.

HOWEVER, it is Harry "Clown" Kahuanui who leads the average per game department. The 6'4" center has a high average of 12.74 to his credit.

Kept away from the courts during the football season, the Rainbow griddler was able to play only 18 tilts. After a slow start he improved considerably and racked up a sum of 231 markers. "Clown" was especially valuable against the towering

KAHUANUI Mainland cagers when he registered an average of 15 digits per game.

GEORGE MALAMA was second only to Loui in total points scored with his 245 in 24 cagefests, while Bob Wong and Bill Young follow in that order with 162 and 141.

Finishing his first year on the Varsity, Charlie Hamane gave a preview of future performances with his 106. Others on Coach Art Gallon's squad and their individual scoring for the season are: Dick Mamiya (79), Al Haake (77), Takashi Matsui (72), David Yokomoto (36), and Larry Sato (33).

Completing their cage season with an impressive record of 18 wins in 24 contests, the Green and Whites have pushed in a total of 1,517 against their opponents' 1,211.

Novice Trackfest Tomorrow—Actually

An error was made in Friday's Ka Leo which stated that the novice track meet was to be run off last week end. The notice should have read that the meet will take place at 4 p.m. Wednesday, March 23 (tomorrow) and Friday, March 25.

Junior Varsity Racks Up No. 10 Against Punahou

The UH Junior Varsity wrapped up their 10th victory of the season with a 9 run splurge in the seventh inning Saturday against Punahou at the Honolulu stadium, to win 10-4.

Nine hits and a walk combined with two Punahou errors put the game on ice for the JV's. Leading the bat parade for the day were Harry Masaki, Joe Kuroda, Henry Tamaye, and Johnny Tashiro, each with 2 hits.

WINNING PITCHER was Kenneth Tome, while Charlie Ane chucked for the losers.

Although the Junior nine have lost 4 games this season, they have won 9 straight against high school opposition and have compiled a team batting average of .258 thus far. Leading hitters for the team are George Higashino (.429) and Tashiro (.423).

Mr. UH Contest Dates Announced

The campus wide Mr. UH contest dates were announced by Mr. Dor Gustuson. Consisting of three divisions, this campus competition will be held on three separate days in April.

The first group, men under 5'4", will perform the 25th; 5'4" to 5'8", the 27th; and over 5'8", the 29th.

The finals will also be held the 29th when the champions and runnersup from each division compete for the coveted Mr. UH title and a large trophy.

$173 Appropriation Gets 3-Way Split

EXTRAVAGANZA Beauty Kings At Seniors' Beach Picnic

"Operation Encore," the Senior class's picnic scheduled for this Saturday from 2 to midnight at Manners' beach, will be highlighted by a men's beauty contest, it was disclosed by the class cabinet, which is planning the outdoor extravaganza.

Modeled after the Ka Palapala contest, the seniors' will have men candidates attired in women's clothes representing the six dominant racial groups on campus.

OTHER EVENTS listed on the program are a scavenger hunt, group singing, tug o' war, games, outdoor races, and an amateur contest with contestants representing the various campus clubs, according to Bernice Yoshino, chairman.

For food, sizzling, tender beef barbecue style tops the list, the committee in charge of food announced. Rice and macaroni salad will be served with the meat along with fruit punch.

TICKETS AT 50 cents per person are now on sale at Hemenway hall lobby from 11:30 to 1:30 p.m. They will be sold until this Friday.

A $173 appropriation sought by the ASUH finance committee was approved by the council last Thursday.

In asking for the allotment, Edwin Sato, ASUH treasurer, stated that $91 will make up the deficit incurred in printing 2000 copies of last year's model constitution.

SATO ALSO reported that $52 collected from the Hilo center students will be refunded to the Big Island unit. The councilmen agreed that the refund will in no way affect the Hilo students' standing and rights as full fledged members of the ASUH.

The remaining sum will be issued to the Architecture club as prizes for the recent Bus Shelter Design contest, Sato said. The awards were designated as $15, $10, and $5 for first, second, and third prizes, respectively.

Extension Sets Registration Dates

Registration for non-credit courses in the extension division will be held from March 28 to April 1 in room 16, Hawaii hall, and the administration building of the Young Buddhist association, 1710 Fort street, it was announced by Dr. Albert McKinney.

Instruction is scheduled to begin April 4, he added.

Additional information can be obtained from the extension division.

TG's 'Good Woman Of Setzuan' Stars Arlene Kim In Title Role

ARLENE KIM

Arlene Kim, popular UH student thespian, will play the title role in "The Good Woman of Setzuan," the Theatre Guild's fourth production which opens April 1 at Farrington hall.

This will be Miss Kim's first appearance on the Farrington hall stage since Nov. 1948, at which time she was seriously injured in an automobile accident in Iowa.

SHE HAS SCORED outstanding hits the past two years in "Beggar's Opera," "Hay Fever," "Hello, Out There," and other TG plays.

Miss Kim is slated to play two roles in the drama which was written by Bertolt Brecht. Her portrayal of Shen Te, one of the two, is believed to be one of the longest roles in any recent modern play.

OTHERS IN the cast are Terry Adaniya, Forrest Murphy, Ted Hirata, Don Wills, Anita Chang, Veronica Chang, Tommy Luis, Bob Richardson, Stanley Yamamoto, Dan Taba, Kazue Amiooka, Ted Viera, and Shirley Nagao.

THE PLAY HAS been produced only once in America, at the University of Minnesota in Dec. 1948.

Tickets are on sale at the Farrington box office daily from 9 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. Reservations for seats at $1.80 may be made by calling 94140. TG book holders may exchange coupon number 4 for the tickets.

Summer Cannery Work Registration On Campus May 5-6

Arrangements are now being made for UH students to register here for summer cannery work May 5 and 6, disclosed Mrs. Minnie Nakatsuka, employment counselor.

Representatives from California Packing Corp., Libby McNeill & Libby, and Hawaiian Pineapple Co. will be on campus between 8:30 a.m. and 3 p.m. May 5, and from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. the following day.

STUDENTS ARE reminded to bring their social security cards with them when registering.

Persons without cards may call at the social security office, fifth floor, Young Hotel building.

KAUAI PINE is registering its workers through the office of student personnel, in care of Mrs. Nakatsuka.

A "first applied, first hired" policy is being followed by the Maui Pineapple company.

SEVERAL OTHER job openings were also reported.

Interested male and female students may apply for group work with children in the city or at summer camp. Salaries range from $60 to $150 plus room and board for an eight-week period.

A WAITRESS for a McCully eating establishment is wanted Saturdays, Sundays, and any week day. Wage is 65 cents per hour plus meals.

A cashier's position at 80 cents per hour is open for a woman student at CHA 3. Hours are Saturdays from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Six Coeds To Model At AWS Fashion Show
Six coeds were recently chosen to model at the AWS fashion show slated for March 30, 3 to 5 p.m. at Hemenway hall.

The models include Wilma Brown, Lorna Lee, Elin Bolles, Ruth Awai, Mildred Tolentino, and Pat Fukuda. Seven different sets will be featured, displaying fashions from wedding gowns to bathing suits, announced Betty Honnen and Miss Brown, co-chairmen.

Frosh Picnic Ducats On Sale

Only 500 tickets are available for the Frosh "Twilite Rump-roast" slated for Saturday, April 2, from 2 to 10 p.m. at Haleiwa park, announced Evelyn Young and Martha Mau, co-chairmen.

The ducats, which will go on sale tomorrow at Hemenway hall lobby, are priced at 50 cents. Freshmen are advised to purchase them before Friday.

If enough cars are unavailable, bus transportation will be provided, they said.

BROTHERS UNDER THE SKIN

Kappa Epsilon Theta To Get 'Pupule' Member

The tables will be turned on Hal Lewis, more popularly known as "J. Akuhead Pupule," when the radio prankster is initiated into Kappa Epsilon Theta fraternity as an honorary member Friday.

With an informal ceremony scheduled for 12:30 p.m. at Hemenway hall, the initiation proceedings will be in keeping with Mr. Lewis' reputation as a "kibitzer and corny gagger."

ON THE MORE serious side, Kappa Epsilon is making the KPOA disc jokey an honorary member in return for the numerous services he has rendered student activities here.

"Akuhead" is best remembered at UH for his mc work with the mammoth Pineapple Bowl float parade last Dec.

We're just poor college students
Who live on the G. I. Bill.
We spend our money with prudence
'Cause we dine at Kuhio Grill.
